Yellow warning
Wind

Between 20:00 Wed 19 Aug 2020 and
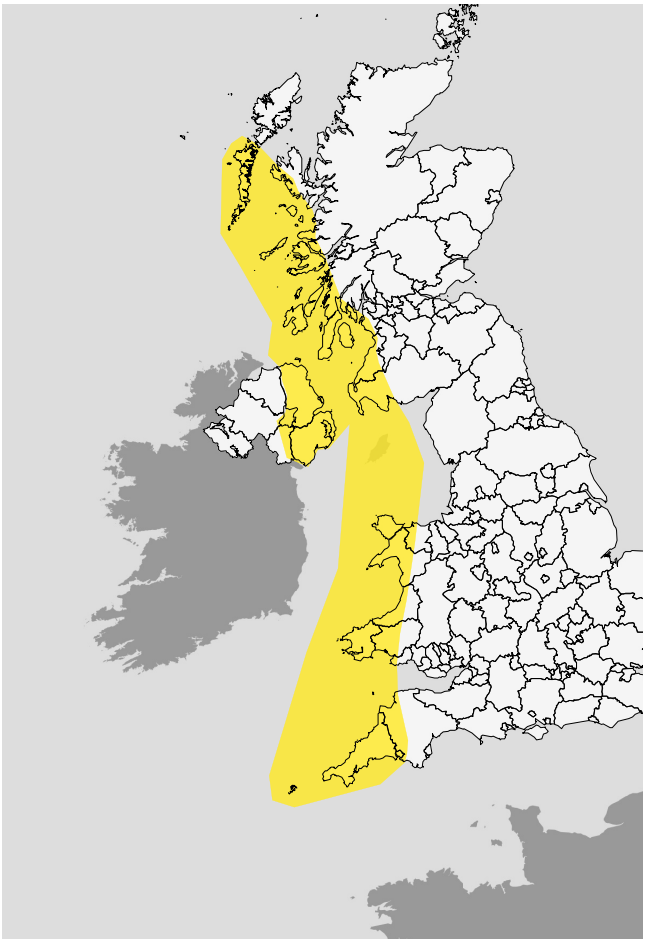
04:00 Fri 21 Aug 2020



Strong winds are expected to cause some disruption to travel and power supplies Thursday and into Friday morning.

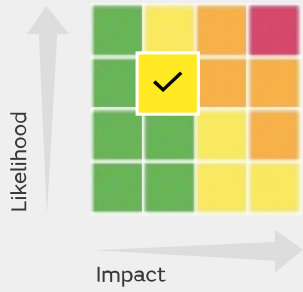
What to expect

- Some delays to road, rail, air and ferry transport are likely
- Probably some bus and train services affected, with some journeys taking longer
- Delays for high-sided vehicles on exposed routes and bridges likely
- Some short term loss of power and other services is possible
- It's likely that some coastal routes, sea fronts and coastal communities affected by spray and/or large waves
- Some damage to trees with debris on roads are possible given the time of year

Further details

Winds are expected to remain strong across the east of Northern Ireland and the west of England, Wales and Scotland throughout Thursday and overnight into Friday.

Whilst winds may ease at times showers are expected to bring squally gusts throughout the period. 40-50 mph gusts are likely inland at times with 50-60 mph gusts possible around exposed coasts, particularly overnight into Friday where there is a chance of 70 mph gusts around the exposed west coasts of Wales.



Medium likelihood of low impacts
